

SUPPORTING YOUTH MENTAL HEALTH NEEDS:

A Free Workshop Series

Join us as we discuss the post-Covid mental health needs of youth in our community and learn ways to support and respond to these needs. Presentations open to Law Enforcement, Providers, Educators and Parents

Full Day Conference

An Integrative Approach to Supporting & Responding to Youth

- Building Bridges
- Psychological First Aid
- Social Emotional Learning

Wednesday,
December 13, 2023
from 9-3:30 pm

Understanding and Increasing Empathy for Justice Impacted Youth and Families

Yvonne Farrell, MA
151 Centennial Ave, Rm B&G
Piscataway, NJ
10am-12 pm

11/14

11/29

Multicultural Competence in the Schools and in the Community

Schenike Massie-Lambert, PhD
New Brunswick Law Center
1 Constitutional Drive, New Brunswick, NJ
10am -12 pm

Promoting Positive School Climate and Connectedness

Erin Bruno, MA
Piscataway YMCA
520 Hoes Lane, Piscataway, NJ
9:00am-11:00 am

11/30

12/5

Working with Youth and Families Experiencing Migratory Grief

Rosemarie Flores, LPC
DCF Training Center
30 Van Dyke Avenue, New Brunswick, NJ
10 am-11:30 am

Understanding Adolescent Development and Recognizing Childhood Trauma

Michelle Pigott, PsyD
Virtual
6-7:30 pm

12/6

12/18

Understanding Anxiety and Depression in Youth

Suzi Millar, PsyD
Virtual
10:00-11:30 am

